

TRINITY COLLEGE DEEP IN SORROW

Remains of J. M. Flowers Arrive From China—A Brilliant Career.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
TRINITY PARK, DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 18.—It is gratifying to learn that Mr. Washington Duke, who suffered a serious accident about three weeks ago which resulted in a broken limb is to-day much improved in condition. For several days he has suffered much pain from a broken hip-bone, and his friends have waited with anxiety for a change. Mr. Duke is in his eighty-fourth year, and his power of physical endurance is remarkable. Not many years ago he had the misfortune to break an arm which knitted back as quickly as could have been expected if it had been that of a much younger man. His complete recovery from this shock is hoped for.

The remains of Mr. John McTearle Flowers, who died in Shanghai, China, January 2, arrived this week and were interred at Elmwood cemetery. Mr. Flowers was in the employ of the American Tobacco Company at the time of his death, and the circumstances of his death make it a peculiarly sad one. He was among strangers, was taken sick with smallpox, and died in the hands of his Chinese nurse. He was a son of Col. G. W. Flowers, and a brother of Prof. R. L. Flowers, of the Trinity College Faculty. He was born in Taylorsville, N. C., December, 1859; entered Trinity College at the age of seventeen, graduated with a class of 1900. He soon began to show his ability to lead in all branches of scholarly attainments, and his uprightness and personality won for him the esteem of every man in college. As a speaker he was gifted, and he was a member of the Hesperian Literary Society. He represented Trinity College in the second Wake Forest-Trinity Debate, and was a contestant for the Wiley Gray Medal at his graduation. He was a member of the Greek Letter fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega, which has a chapter at the college.

After leaving college he rose rapidly in the line of business, and was in the employ of the same company which he represented at the time of his death. First in Durham, then in New York he was transferred. In Bristol, England, he organized the Imperial Tobacco Company, of that city; then again in America he held responsible position for his company. While in the Far East, the interest of his company in Shanghai, China, death cut short his remarkable career. At the age of twenty-five years he had displayed such rare discernment and quick judgment—and his unselfishness and honest living gained confidence in him from all men—that his Alma Mater looked upon him with pride and regarded him as one of her most promising young men. The recent loss in the death of these three young men, Avery, Glavin, and Flowers, is felt keenly by the college. Dr. Kluge began a revival service in the Y. M. C. A. Hall on February 1. The meeting were quite successful. Many conversions were the result.

The preliminary for the Emory-Trinity Debate will be held at the two-day instant. The debate will be between the Trinity and the Emory. The debate will be between the Trinity and the Emory. The debate will be between the Trinity and the Emory.

Notwithstanding the cold weather the ball men are practicing daily in the gymnasium. The second floor is used, and the men are getting in some good training. The season opens on March 17, with a game against the Trinity Park School.

A Valentine reception was given at the home of Mrs. W. H. Branson on East Iamseur Street, Durham, last evening, complimentary to the Sigma Delta Society of Trinity College. Invitations, written on Valentine cards were issued as follows: "Cupid invites you to meet the Sigma Deltas at the home of Miss Branson, on Tuesday evening, February 14, 1905."

Miss Grace Andrews, of Greensboro, who is visiting Miss Branson, assisted in receiving and entertaining the guests.

The color scheme was red, and the decorations were composed of Hearts-on-Strings, Cupids, and Valentine's cards. The entertainment was a Valentine and cob-web party. The webs led all about the rooms, and to the end of each was attached a valentine. Refreshments followed after the games were over. Spinning-fortune-tops were given as souvenirs. These present were as follows: Miss Nannie Goodson and Mr. L. P. Howard, Miss Daisy Minor and Mr. Cecil Arthur, Miss Mary Thomas and Mr. Guy Baldwin, Miss Mitchell Waddell and Mr. Paul Webb, Miss Leslie Peay and Mr. Jas. A. Long, Jr., Miss Mary Duke and Mr. John Hutchinson, Miss Julia Minor and Mr. L. G. Daniels, Miss Alice Craft and Mr. Paul Lucas, Miss Emmitt Griffin and Mr. Robert R. Rogers, Miss Alice Franklin and Mr. Thomas Messers, A. B. Bradsher, F. A. Ogburn, B. S. Womble, C. G. Connelly, W. A. Goodson, A. B. Duke, Fred Flowers, A. G. Odell, and T. M. Stokes.

Dr. W. P. Few, Dean of the faculty, has been confined to his room since the first of the month, suffering from a slight attack of cold.

Miss Leslie Peay, of Durham, who is in school on the park, is now rooming at the Woman's Dormitory, the Mary Duke building.

Prof. W. H. Pegram, of the chair of chemistry, will deliver a lecture on "Radio Activity" in the lecture room, Friday evening, February 17th.

President Gilgo is conducting special religious services in the Trinity Park School Auditorium, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., of the institution.

Dr. Chas. W. Edwards, of the Department of Physics at Trinity College, will address the "Association of Secondary Schools of North Carolina" at their annual meeting in Raleigh on February 17th. His subject will be "The Sciences in Secondary Schools." On the day following headmaster, J. A. Byrnes, of the Trinity Park School, will read a paper on "Secondary Schools in North Carolina," before this assembly of educators.

Prof. F. A. Eldridge, of the Park School, is secretary and treasurer of this association.

Mr. W. R. Baxter, of Stoneville, is erecting a residence on the Park near the Park School. He will make this his home, and moves here to get the school advantages.

Rev. J. A. Clark is visiting his son, Loy W. Clark, a student at the Park School.

Mecklenburg Notes.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
JEFFERSON, VA., Feb. 18.—Pneumonia has been quite prevalent in this section this winter. Two members of Mr. J. J. Newcomb's family, his wife and only son, having died from it during the last week. A few other cases of pneumonia in the surrounding county have been reported.

The many friends of Miss Hattie B. Warren, an attractive young lady of near South Hill, who has been teaching school in this community, will be glad to know that she has sufficiently recovered from a recent attack of neuritis, to resume teaching.

Farmers in this section are glad to report that prices for tobacco have taken an upward move.
